

a rich heritage a bright future

Founded in 1956 by a small group of Christian mental health professionals, CAPS has grown to more than 1,500 members in the U.S., Canada, and more than 25 other countries.

CAPS members represent a variety of denominations, professional groups, and theoretical orientations, all united in their commitment to Christ and to professional excellence.

CAPS is a nonprofit, member-supported organization. It is led by a fully functioning board of directors, and the membership has a voice in the direction of the association.

PO Box 365
Batavia, IL 60510-0365 USA

(630) 639-9478 voice
(630) 454-3799 fax
info@caps.net

LEARN MORE ABOUT CAPS & BECOME A MEMBER ONLINE

www.caps.net

integrating
FAITH & BEHAVIORAL SCIENCE

The Christian Association for Psychological Studies

CAPS MEMBERS serve as psychologists, educators, psychiatrists, physicians, marriage and family therapists, social workers, psychiatric nurses, professional and lay counselors, researchers, psychological assistants, interns, pastors, chaplains, theologians, pastoral counselors, and students.

CAPS encourages in-depth consideration of therapeutic, research, theoretical, and theological issues. The association is a forum for creative new ideas. In fact, our publications and conferences are the birthplace for many of the formative concepts in our field today.

Through its various programs, CAPS encourages the pursuit of excellence in the counseling clinic, in the classroom, in the community, and in the member's spiritual and emotional life.

BECOME A PART of the nation's largest nonprofit association of Christians in the counseling and behavioral sciences!

INTEGRATION

CAPS membership includes a subscription to the Journal of Psychology and Christianity (JPC). This peer-reviewed quarterly CAPS publication provides a venue for scholarly interchange among Christian professionals in the behavioral science and pastoral professions, and is subscribed to by over 250 college and university libraries.

and partners with PsychoEducational Resources (PER) in offering continuing education for a wide variety of professions.

CONNECTION

CAPS is more than just another professional association. In addition to the JPC and conference discounts, benefits include the monthly CAPS Connect email newsletter, listing in our online Professional Directory, participation in our Online Integration Forum, access to our Ethical Guidelines for Practice and Research, and Network of Professional and Pastoral Care, as well as special offers and discounts for members only.

EDUCATION

CAPS members receive discounted registration for the annual International Conference, as well as for regional and local events. CAPS is approved by the American Psychological Association (APA) and the National Board for Certified Counselors (NBCC) for the provision of continuing education,

